WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Jilliyn Acosta was born in San Francisco, California. She is making her NDV musical debut in the role of "Willy Wonka" in this year's 8th Grade production of Willy Wonka, Jr. Performing on stage, singing, acting, and dancing is Jilliy's passion. She had dreamed of being in the NDV musical ever since kindergarten when she watched the production of Beauty and the Beast. Jilliy describes herself as physically small, but on stage works to perform larger than life for the audience. She aspires to be on the Broadway stage one day, with her dream role as "Sophie" in Mamma Mia. She will be attending Saint Ignatius College Preparatory in the fall and can't wait to perform on stage in high school. Jilliy's motto in life is: "Act as if it were impossible to fail." - Dorothea Brande

Daniel Bales is no stranger to the stage, having performed for several years with the San Francisco Ballet at the War Memorial Opera House. He makes his acting debut as "Mr. Teavee" in Willy Wonka Jr. Daniel is passionate about classical ballet dancing, reading, history, robotics, and all things technology. Daniel is looking forward to this summer and spending time with his dog, Korra, and making plans for freshman year at Archbishop Riordan High School. Daniel's life motto is: "Imagination will often carry us to worlds that never were. But without it, we go nowhere." - Carl Sagan

Francesca Biggs was born in San Francisco, California. Her interests include TikTok, drawing, and swimming. In Willy Wonka Jr., she plays "Mrs. Gloop," the mother of Augustus. Francesca feels confident when practicing on stage, but shares: "Theater is for some people, but not for me. While I have had fun, I don't think I would do it again." Francesca is very excited to be attending Saint Ignatius College Preparatory next fall. Her life motto is: "Too blessed to be stressed!"

Elizabeth Boi was born in San Francisco, California. Her interests are swimming and art. She loves to golf and play tennis. Her favorite subjects are language arts and social studies. Elizabeth is part of the ensemble cast for Willy Wonka Jr. and plays an "Oompa Loompa" and a "Candy Kid." She also would have been a "Chef" in the stage production but adds on a "Narrator" role for the radio show. She does not currently plan to continue in theater but will continue to hone her visual arts skills when she attends SF University High School in the fall. Elizabeth's life motto is: "Failure is the condiment that gives success its flavor." - Truman Capote

Luca Bordonaro was born in San Francisco, California. He has many interests, but his top two are video games and music. His favorite subject in school is French, as he has been learning it all his life. He plays the role of "Oompa Loompa #1," one of the Oompa Loompas with speaking lines and solos. Luca shares that when he's on stage he's nervous, but also excited and happy. If he could play in another show, he would choose Shrek. Luca will be attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory High School next year. His life motto is: "Whoever is happy will make others happy too." - Mark Twain

Alexandra Brinkman was born in San Francisco, California. She enjoys playing tennis, going to the beach, traveling, swimming, watching Netflix, and shopping. Alexandra is debuting in Willy Wonka Jr. as Violet's mother, "Mrs. Beauregarde." She really enjoys the role, as she is "quite a character, and very full of herself!" Alexandra had these remarks on her experience: "When I was on stage I was not that nervous because I don't have many lines or a singing part, so I mostly just stood there; which is not that nerve-racking. My dream musical to star in would be Wicked. It has always been my favorite show and it would be really wonderful if I could star in it." She will be attending Saint Ignatius College Preparatory High School in the Fall. Alexandra's life motto is: "Expect nothing, and you will never be disappointed."

Aeneas Bufiy was born in Palo Alto, California. He enjoys fencing and skiing. He currently serves on the San Mateo County Youth Commission and will attend Junipero Serra High School in the fall. Aeneas plays the lead role of "Charlie Bucket" in Willy Wonka Jr. His favorite musicals include Sponge Bob Square Pants and Hamilton. As a history buff and comedy fan, Aeneas's dream role is the character of "King George" in Hamilton. Aeneas's life motto is: "Victory belongs to the most persevering." - Napoleon

Ewan Coupar was born in San Francisco, California. He loves to skateboard. In school, his favorite subjects are art and language arts. He also enjoys volunteering as an art teacher's assistant for Mrs. Lake. In Willy Wonka, Jr. Ewan plays the role of Charlie's dad, "Mr. Bucket." Ewan is excited about the radio show and says that Aeneas and Kim have helped him a lot in his role, especially with lines and blocking. While he doesn't want to do acting in the future, he'd be interested in doing technical theatre. Ewan will be attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory High School next year. His motto in life is: "Only the walls you build yourself will confine you."

Beckett Flanagan was born in San Francisco, California. He's making his debut in Willy Wonka Jr., portraying the "Candy Man." His interests are any sport with a ball ... football, soccer, basketball or baseball. When not playing a sport he loves music and video games. His favorite subject is history. He's not sure whether he will continue in theater, but he's enjoying this experience. Beckett will be attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory High School in the fall. Beckett's life motto is: "Never give up!"

Scarlett Farr was born in Seattle, Washington, and lived in London, England, for two years before moving to San Francisco at the age of five. She is making her debut in Willy Wonka Jr. as an "Oompa Loompa" and a "Candy Kid." She also would have been a "Chef" in the stage production but adds on a "Narrator" role for the radio show. Scarlett's interests are swimming and skiing, and she loves traveling and seeing other cultures. Her favorite subject is social studies. Scarlett doesn't plan to continue theater but would be interested in trying on-screen acting in the future. If she had the opportunity to be in Hamilton she would take it though! Scarlett doesn't feel nervous on stage. She is very excited to be attending Convent of the Sacred Heart High School in the fall. Scarlett's life motto is: "Those who stand for nothing, fall for everything." - Alexander Hamilton

Catherine Fox was born in San Francisco, California. Some of her favorite things to do are ski, dance, read, watch baseball, and go on mountain bike rides. Her favorite subject is literature. In Willy Wonka Jr. Catherine plays "Violet Beauregarde," one of the five golden ticket winners. Violet is a sassy girl from Georgia who loves chewing gum. She says the role is a lot of fun to play. Catherine isn't sure if she wants to continue theatre in high school yet, but she's had a good time this year. Catherine will be attending Convent of the Sacred Heart High School in the fall. One of her favorite quotes is: "People say nothing's impossible, but I do nothing every day." - "Winnie the Pooh" (A. A. Milne)

Gabriela "Gaby" Garba was born in San Francisco, California. She is making her musical theater debut in Willy Wonka Jr. as an "Oompa Loompa" and "Matilda." Gaby's primary interest is figure skating. Her favorite subject in school is english. When she is not on the ice, you can find her volunteering at her favorite senior dog rescue, Muttville. Although she does not wish to pursue acting, she is having fun on the Willy Wonka set; but she might change her mind if performing in Wicked was an option in the future. Gaby will be attending St. Ignatius College Preparatory in the fall. Her motto in life is: "Love life as if it were your favorite Starbucks drink."

Luke Gutierrez was born in San Francisco, California. His primary interest has always been soccer, either watching it or playing it. His favorite subject is science because he likes to know how and why things happen in life. Luke enjoys playing soccer, spending time with his family, and playing video games with friends. Luke is making his acting debut in Willy Wonka Jr. playing "Grandpa George." It is a new experience for him to be a character in a musical and he never thought he would be acting or singing. Luke has used his knowledge of being around elderly people in his family to develop his character of "Grandpa George." He does not plan on stage acting again, but it has been an experience he will not forget. Luke will be attending Stuart Hall High School next year and is looking forward to it. His motto in life is: "Don't give up!"

Conor Hansbury was born in the small seaside community of San Francisco. He likes drawing and computer class. He plays tennis when he feels like it. In Willy Wonka Jr. Conor plays the plump German golden ticket winner, "Augustus Gloop." He felt neutral on stage - he liked reading his lines in front of his dog Seamus, "His happy face was all the feedback I needed." Conor thinks he's more of an artist than an actor in the end. He's looking forward to attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory high school in the fall. Conor's motto in life is to "ride fast."

Jamie Harvey was born in San Francisco, California. His favorite subject is science. He plays soccer for the SF Glens Soccer Team and basketball. Jamie's role in Willy Wonka Jr. is the "Camera Man." At first, he was nervous, but he says, "My part was pretty simple, so it became easier to act." Willy Wonka has not inspired him to continue in theatre. Jamie will be attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory High School in the fall. Jamie's life motto is: "Die with memories, not dreams."

Ella Kaminski was born in San Francisco, California. She has many interests, such as equestrian, pottery, baking, math, and photography. In this year's radio play of Willy Wonka, Jr. Ella plays "Veruca Salt," a stuck-up British brat who wants everything in sight. If this play were taking place on stage Ella thinks she would be nervous, but excited, to portray a character that has so much stage presence. She hopes someday to be able to be part of an onstage production with just as much mystical charm as Willy Wonka. Next year, Ella will be attending Redwood High School. Her life motto is: "Attitude is everything."

Isabella Kelly was born in San Francisco, California. Her main interest is ballet and contemporary dance at SF Youth Ballet Academy. Her favorite subject is language arts. The role that Isabella plays in Willy Wonka Jr. is "Grandma Joe," the grandmother of Charlie. When Isabella is onstage, she says that she is nervous but also excited to perform, as she has had many live stage experiences in numerous dance recitals. Acting in this play has inspired her to continue in theatre as she has enjoyed the experience. She has seen many musicals and some of her favorite musicals include: Hamilton, School of Rock and Aladdin. She will attend St. Ignatius College Preparatory next year. Isabella's motto in life is: "Do the best you can until you know better. Then, when you know better, do better." - Maya Angelou

Jonathan Kruger was born in San Francisco, California. He plays an "Oompa Loompa" and a "Candy Kid" in Willy Wonka Jr. He loves to travel and enjoys immersing himself in the history and culture of others. His favorite subject is social studies. Jonathan will be attending Archbishop Riordan High School next year. His life motto is: "When you reach the end of your rope, tie a knot in it and hang on." - F.D.R.

Lucy Larson was born in San Francisco, California. When she's not at school Lucy enjoys hanging out with friends, staying on top of current events, and photography. Her other passions are spending time outdoors biking and skiing. In Willy Wonka Jr., Lucy plays an "Oompa Loompa." Although nervous at the idea of being on stage, once the lights go down, it's showtime! Lucy will attend Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory High School in the fall, where she will be reunited with her big sister. Lucy's motto in life is: "Time spent outdoors is never wasted."

Luke McNamee was born in San Francisco, California. He is interested in academics and science. In Willy Wonka Jr., he plays "Phineas Trout." He enjoys being on stage and is happy to have an acting (not singing) role! Luke will attend Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory and the i2 program in the fall. His life's motto is: "Anything that can go wrong, will go wrong."

Antonia Miller was born in San Francisco, California. Her interests include playing sports, traveling, reading, and art. Her favorite subjects are math and science, but she enjoys all of them. Her hobbies include basketball, soccer, and ballet. In Willy Wonka Jr., Antonia plays "Oompa Loompa #4," and she would have played a "Squirrel" and a "Chef" in the stage production. On stage, she felt excited to perform because she's having fun with her friends. While Antonia is not likely to continue with theater in the future, she has had fun being part of Willy Wonka Jr. Next fall she will attend SF University High School. Antonia's life motto is: "You get what you work for, not what you wish for."

Caroline Miller was born in San Francisco, California. She is making her debut in Willy Wonka Jr. as "Mrs. Bucket," Charlie's mother, and also plays an "Oompa Loompa," and she would have been a "Squirrel" in the stage production. Her interests include writing, traveling to exciting new places, and playing sports. Her favorite subjects in school are science and language arts. Her extracurricular activities include gymnastics, soccer, softball, and basketball. When Caroline is on stage, she "feels excited to be able to play a character and tell their story." She probably won't continue in theatre, but she enjoyed being a part of this play. Caroline will be attending San Francisco University High School in the fall. Caroline's motto in life is: "If you never try, you'll never know."

Daniele Paganini was born in San Francisco, California. His passions include Scouting, working out, and spending time in the outdoors. His favorite subject is social studies and learning about the history of war. In Willy Wonka Jr. he makes his first stage appearance as the rich and overindulging father, "Mr. Salt," who thinks he can buy his daughter, Veruca, anything. When he's on stage, he feels nervous. While he doesn't plan on acting further, he enjoys building stage sets and managing the technical details of plays and theater, which he hopes to do in high school. Daniele will be attending The Bay School of San Francisco in the fall, which he is very excited about! His life motto is: "Option is trivial when the opportunity is not unique, when the stake is insignificant, or when the decision is reversible if it later proves unwise."
-William James

Romeo Pellizzaro was born in San Francisco, California, to French and Italian parents. He is making his NDV musical debut in Willy Wonka Jr., playing three roles: "Candy Kid," "Oompa Loompa," and "James." Romeo's favorite subjects are French, technology, and social studies. He has many favorite hobbies, like soccer and video games, as well as traveling! Romeo will be attending Hillsdale High School in the fall.

Richmond Salvador was born in San Francisco, California. Among his favorite hobbies are dancing, math and ballet! In Willy Wonka Jr., he plays "Oompa Loompa #5." He also would have played a "Squirrel" in the stage production. He's excited when on stage. At this time, he does not plan to continue with musical theater but can imagine himself in a production of Aladdin one day! Next year he'll be attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory. Richmond's life motto is: "Never give up!"

Ryan Salvador was born in San Francisco, California. He enjoys singing and doing arts and crafts in his spare time. In Willy Wonka Jr., he plays "Grandpa Stewart." He feels happy when he's on stage because he enjoys being with his friends while having fun! While he won't pursue musical theater for now, someday he would like to play "Pumbaa" in The Lion King because of his love of the character! Next year he will be attending Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory High School. Ryan's life motto is: "Expect nothing, and you will never be disappointed."

Pashangkusha "Rani" Sardar plays two roles in Willy Wonka Jr.: "Grandma Georgina" and an "Oompa Loompa." When on stage she is both excited and nervous at once. She shares, "My classmates and Kim (our director) have been so helpful, and everyone has really looked out for one another" and she is confident that "with everyone's help, this show will be a big success!" Rani believes there are lessons to be learned in Willy Wonka, like not to be greedy or stubborn. Working together has shown her how helpful and supportive her classmates and all the parents have been! Her favorite sports are ice skating, tennis and volleyball, and her hobbies are reading, art and music. Her career goal is to become a cardiologist. She will be attending Lowell High School next year. Rani's life motto is: "Use your time wisely because you can buy anything in the world but time."

Ella Schmidtlin was born in Los Angeles, California. Performing classical ballet and singing on stage since she was little, Willy Wonka Jr. is her first musical theater performance. Her roles of "Oompa Loompa" and a "Narrator" have made her more comfortable in theater arts and have given her a chance to practice voice projection. Ella hopes to continue performing arts in high school, whether it's dance, piano, voice, or theater. She dreams of being "Belle" in Beauty and the Beast. Ella's life motto, and what she thinks about before going on stage is: "Before you can achieve, you must believe... in yourself." - Misty Copeland

Nathan Zaytsev was born in San Francisco, California. His main interests are ballroom dancing, basketball, and video games. In Willy Wonka Jr. Nathan plays a "Narrator" and an "Oompa Loompa." Nathan shares, "I still get nervous if I mess up on stage because that would be embarrassing. This is strange, because as a dancer and performer I spend a lot of time on stage, but I still get nervous." Something that helps him is to read his lines over and over again until he can say them without even thinking about it. Willy Wonka has inspired him to continue theater, but not that intensively. When asked which musical he would like to star in someday, it would have to be High School Musical 2. Nathan will be attending Dwight Online School while continuing his dance career and getting an excellent education. His life motto is: "You won't know that you can do something if you don't actually try!"

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Dear Class of 2020,

I miss all of you.

I know this moment is frightening and stressful. Maybe it feels to you like the entire world has been shaken up like a snow globe. It feels that way to me. I know you are being inundated with lots and lots of information. I know some of you (maybe many of you) are feeling lonely. I know some of you are heartbroken to have your 8th grade year possibly end this way.

I also know, because I've spent time with you, that you are smart and kind and good. I know that you are funny and creative and resourceful and resilient. I wish I could make it not scary but I'm here if you need me. I am certain that things will continue to shift and change, that some things will have to be further adapted, and that some things will not go smoothly.

Thank you for being yourselves — we'll just figure it out together, one step at a time.

Kim Saunders, Director

PRINCIPAL'S NOTE

The 8th grade musical is a tradition we have enjoyed at NDV for 38 years! This incredible tradition has provided 8th grade students with the opportunity to discover new talents, to be role models in our community, and to leave a lasting impression on the hearts and minds of all who attend their productions. Every year, the hard work and dedication our 8th grade students put into producing their musical helps to instill in them a growth mindset and solidifies the lifelong bonds of friendship they create with one another during their time at NDV. Amazingly and unsurprisingly all at the same time, despite an international pandemic, this year was no exception!

I am so proud of the persistence and perseverance the class of 2020, their families, and our director Kim Saunders have exhibited in the last several months as they have worked to prepare and present NDV's 39th musical as a radio show! At NDV, we strive to instill in each student a growth mindset so that they learn to embrace challenges as opportunities. The class of 2020 has exemplified this in ways no one ever could have imagined by remaining committed to the decade's long tradition of 8th grade musical performances!

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who helped make this radio show possible during this time of distance learning and international uncertainty. Kim, your joy, enthusiasm, commitment, and willingness to think 'outside the stage' has inspired and allowed our 8th grade musical tradition to continue. Your leadership and strength in the face of the many setbacks this production endured serves as an example to us all. Jennifer and Rose, thank you for serving as play liaisons this year. You certainly ended up with far more on your plates than you signed up for and it is clear that your passion and creativity truly know no bounds! You were the glue that held everything together and we are all so grateful. Parents, from day one you were all in with your time, talent, and treasure! The shift in production from stage to screen was monumental; you did it with grace and made it look easy, though we all know it was not.

Thank you class of 2020! You are certainly one of a kind and the lasting memory of this radio show will always serve as evidence of that in years to come. Your hard work and dedication will forever serve as an example of what it truly means to embody our SLEs in every way!

Families and friends, please join with me as we sit back, in the comfort of our homes, and enjoy this year's 39th musical production of Willy Wonka, Jr brought to life as a radio production by Notre Dame des Victoires' persistent, resilient, and fantastic Class of 2020! -- God Bless, Sarah Currier, Principal

Mrs. Judy Shilstone

Thank you for always believing in our kids, leading them to be life-long learners both spiritually and academically; also, for being their number one supporter, despite any challenges they face. We are fortunate to have you and wish the best in your retirement.

-- Much Love from the parents of the numerous children you have taught

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Kim Saunders... for tirelessly working with our 8th graders; for the flexibility and perseverance to continue through in-person rehearsals to Zoom calls and recordings; for the creativity and inspiration to turn the stage play into a radio show.

Sarah Currier...for the inspiration and positivity (that literally brought us to tears) to continue through the extreme setback of Shelter in Place. You truly embody the theme of Nothing is Impossible.

Maria Kelly..... to the best Angel Donation Chair ever. Thank you for always going over and above as a parent volunteer; thank you for your commitment to our kids and NDV community-- this production would not have been a reality without you!

Tricia Kerr and Coupar...for your innovative and tireless expertise in developing and creating the first website for NDV's 8th Grade Musical. Thank you for paving the way in starting a tradition for future musicals at NDV.

Maria Gross... for bringing your costumes from imagination to fruition for so many of our characters.

Taylor Dunakin... for choreographing amazing dance routines that may not be seen but will remain in the minds of our dancers forever.

Ray Cardona ...for making the show a reality and stepping up at the final hour to cut, record and assist in producing the radio production. The Class of 2020 is forever grateful.

Parent Helpers... for your assistance in helping us to produce this play. You stepped up when our world seemed to come to a halt and ensured our children and NDV would have a 39th annual 8th grade play.

Angel Donors ... for your financial support to help defray our costs. Without you, the show would not go on!

The Class of 2020 dedicates this Willy Wonka, Jr. musical to our beloved, Mr. Dimitrios Tsokas, “the bravest and sweetest NDV dragon.”
